You don't have to be tall, but you've gotta be good.

Maybe you're not the tallest, the fastest or the strongest. But you're on the team. You have a special quality that makes you a winner and the very best you can be.

At London Life, that's what we're looking for. If you think you've got what it takes to win with us, drop in at your campus recruiting office.

You don't have to be tall, but . . .
